

Beta Theta Boule Foundation, Inc.
2024 Scholarship

Angeline Sabina Irankunda

Angeline Irankunda is the daughter of Venance Ndayiragije and Edisa Ndabzaneye. She graduated from Austin-East Magnet High School in the top 10 percent of her class with a weighted GPA of 4.30. She completed six AP classes and a course at Pellissippi State Community College. She was a member of the National Achievers Society and the National Honors Society. She was an Academic Ambassador and Project Excellence leader. Community involvement participation included the Emerald Youth Foundation, ProjectGRAD Knoxville, and the Boys & Girls Club of Knoxville. While a student her work history includes Food City and Texas Roadhouse. Angeline plans to attend Emory University in Atlanta and major in Childhood Development and minor in Psychology. After completing college, Angeline plans to be a teacher and work to motivate, inspire and challenge youth.