Zaevion Dobson Scholarship Winner

Lucy Riddick

Lucy Riddick from Alcoa High School is the winner of the 2025 Zaevion Dobson Scholarship.

Lucy is the daughter of Loren and Missi Riddick. She graduated from Alcoa High School with a 4.276 GPA. Throughout high school, Lucy demonstrated strong leadership and service, serving on the Student Council, and as Social Chair of the Health Occupation Student of America program. She is a proud member of the National Honor Society and The Richard Williams Leadership Development Academy.

Lucy plans to pursue a career in nursing, beginning her studies at Pellissippi State Community College before transferring to East Tennessee State University to complete her B. S. degree in Nursing. Her ultimate goal is to become a Neonatal Nurse Practitioner, where she hopes to make a difference in the lives of newborns and their families.
